

A photograph of three black wedding cars parked on a gravel driveway in front of a large, multi-story stone building covered in green ivy. The sky is overcast with grey clouds. The cars are arranged from left to right: a small hatchback, a large van, and a sedan. Each car has a white ribbon and a small white flower on the front. The text 'SOMERSET WEDDING CARS' is overlaid in a white box with a gold border in the upper center of the image.
